This 15 minute video, prepared by Erwin Weber and narrated by Kai Swanson, tells a moving story of the Chapel by means of colored slides, period photographs, paintings and documents. It follows the immigrants on their long journey in 1849 from their homeland in northern Sweden to the rugged frontier plains in northwestern Illinois.

For this video, Dr. Tom Robin Harris and Janina Ehrlich, former members of the Augustana College music department, and Jeff Cohen, a former concert artist at the college, composed the background music. Traditional Swedish hymns are played on the organ in Jenny Lind Chapel by Hortence Lindorff.

Note: This DVD will play fine in the DVD players of modern computers and in external DVD drives connected to computers. It probably won't play in older, stand-alone DVD players.
