Play a Video

Except for Step 3, all of these can be done using the RCA remote control.

1. Push the TV button, then the ON button. Wait a few seconds.
2. Push the DVD button, then the ON button. Wait a few seconds.
3. Push the Open/Close button on the DVD player to open the drawer and check on which DVD will be played. Close the drawer by pushing the button again.
4. Push the PLAY button on the remote.
5. Adjust the Volume up (VOL+) or down (VOL-) if necessary. The center button is Mute, on and off.
6. If you wish to stop the video in progress and restart at the beginning, push the STOP button twice, then PLAY.
7. Please leave the DVD in the player when you are done watching.
8. Turn OFF the TV and the DVD player when you leave. Thank you.

---

"Jenny Lind Chapel", Visitor's Guide ($10)

15 minutes
(available in English and Swedish)

This video, prepared by Erwin Weber and narrated by Kai Swanson, tells a moving story of the Chapel by means of colored slides, period photographs, paintings and documents. It follows the immigrants on their long journey in 1849 from their homeland in northern Sweden to the rugged frontier plains in northwestern Illinois.

"Jenny Lind Chapel", Historic Site ($20)

50 minutes
(available in English and Swedish)

This video provides a more detailed account of the history of the Chapel. The host and narrator is Dr. Conrad Bergendoff who was the fifth president of Augustana College (1935-1962). Other narrators include Albert Lestor, Hortence Lindorff, Harry Nelson and Kai Swanson.

For both videos, Dr. Tom Robin Harris and Janina Ehrlich, members of the Augustana College music department, and Jeff Cohen, a former concert artist at the college, composed the background music. Traditional Swedish hymns are played on the organ in Jenny Lind Chapel by Hortence Lindorff.