The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Cpl. Chester Anderson

FUNERAL SERVICES — NOV. 16, 1945
Chapel - Litchfield

Duet........................................Boyd and Kenneth Nystrom
Services.....................................Rev. John P. Trelstad

MAIN STREET LUTHERAN CHURCH

Hutchinson

Organ Prelude..........................Mrs. L. P. Sederstrom
Solo, “God Understands”..............Kenneth Brown
Obituary Scripture......................Rev. N. B. Hansen
Solo, “Face To Face”......................Boyd Nystrom
Sermon.....................................Rev. N. B. Hansen Duet, “God Will Take Care Of You”...
........................................Vernon and Kenneth Brown
Postlude.................................Mrs. L. P. Sederstrom

Pallbearers
Harold Curtis, Arthur Hanson, Vernon Brown,
Roy Nelson, Berger Johnson and Emlin Lewis.
CPL. CHESTER ANDERSON

Cpl. Chester Anderson was born at Appleton, Minnesota, on July 20, 1911. He was baptized in Zion Lutheran Church at Appleton and confirmed in Palmyra Lutheran Church near Hector, Minnesota. He was married to Hazel Mattsfield September 16, 1939.

Mr. Anderson was raised on the farm, and tried various other occupations, but his chief interest was in flying. He was connected with a flying school in Litchfield before the war. He spent one year in a defense aircraft plant in California. After a year of advance training he became an instructor for two years in the War Training Service in Rochester, St. Cloud, and Northfield, Minnesota.

He enlisted in the service of his country February 1, 1944, and was stationed at Sioux City, Iowa, at the time of his death. He was a flight engineer and crew chief. He met his death while flying over the Cumberland mountains in Kentucky near Middlesboro on November 10th.

Cpl. Chester Anderson is survived by his wife and daughter, Kay Frances, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Halleck Anderson, six sisters: Mrs. Arnold (Mildred) Madson, Mrs. Willard (Margaret) Nystrom, Hazel, Evelyn; Clarice, Helen; and three brothers: Leo Roy, Morris, and a brother, Lloyd, who has been reported missing since the fall of Bataan, and a grandmother, Mrs. Inger Anderson.

Cpl. Anderson and his family had arranged to join Main Street Lutheran Church Sunday morning, Nov. 18, where he had worshipped for some time before his death.

God grant that he may be worshipping with the great white throng before the throne of God in glory.