FIVE PERSONS KILLED WHEN PLANE CRASHES

Asheville, Nov. 12.—(P)—The bodies of two officers and three enlisted men who were killed in the crash of an Army P-25 Mitchell bomber near Pruden, Tenn., Saturday, were removed to Moore General Hospital at Swannanoa today.

Army officials announced that next of kin had been notified and disclosed the names of the men killed in the crash.

They were:
Col. Morris Perry of Knoxville, Tenn.
Maj. Frank D. Hayley of Birmingham, Ala.
Sgt. Clayton C. Marsh of St. Paul, Minn.
Cpl. Chester S. Anderson of Hutchinson, Minn.

The plane was on a routine training flight from its base at Sioux City, Iowa, at the time of the crash.

A report from Middlesboro, Ky., said that fog covered the top of the mountain at the time of the crash but that the ship apparently was below the fog when it started its plunge to earth.
